

ARMHS

Adult Rehabilitative Mental Health Services

Adult mental health services to assist individuals with managing their symptoms and improving independent living and community engagement.

ARMHS can assist with

-  Managing mental health symptoms
-  Coping with stress
-  Navigating community resources
-  Household management
-  Interpersonal communication
-  Employment related skills
-  Establishing a social network